

Self-Catering Wedding Packages 2027

Dear Bride & Groom,

Congratulations on your engagement, and thank you for considering White Diamond Venue for your wedding day.

Nestled between farmland and bushveld, White Diamond offers a peaceful countryside setting within easy driving distance of Pretoria and Johannesburg. Our open-air Bush Chapel, free-roaming wildlife, scenic gardens and spacious Reception Hall with glass windows, chandeliers and fairy lights create a romantic setting with beautiful photo opportunities.

Our on-site lodge can accommodate up to 100 guests and includes an elegant Bridal Suite, three luxury self-catering chalets, a self-catering family house and 30 standard courtyard rooms.

Furniture, Chapel & Set-Up Responsibilities

White Diamond supplies only the furniture and venue items expressly included in the confirmed booking. Furniture is provided for the final confirmed and fully paid guest count. White Diamond is not obliged to provide additional furniture on the wedding day for undeclared or unpaid guests.

Reception Hall

White Diamond provides the included reception tables and chairs. The Client and/or appointed suppliers are responsible for all décor, linen, floral, stationery and styling set-up, as well as the placement and removal of those items.

Chapel

White Diamond provides the included chapel chairs, register table and pulpit stand. The Client is responsible for chair positioning, décor, chair covers/straps, aisle styling and all other ceremony set-up unless a separate written service has been purchased.

COORDINATOR REQUIRED

The self-catering package does not include a White Diamond wedding coordinator. The Client must appoint a competent person to coordinate suppliers, set-up, timing, ceremony/reception transitions and breakdown on the wedding day.

Décor & Venue Protection

- No nails, screws, staples, drilling or permanent adhesive may be used on venue structures.
- No permanent/fixed White Diamond décor may be removed, moved or altered without prior written approval.
- Any approved removal or reinstatement of fixed décor may carry a quoted labour/reinstatement fee.
- Glitter, confetti, artificial petals, smoke/fog machines, fireworks, sky lanterns and open flames require prior written approval and may be prohibited.
- Nothing may be attached to, cut from or removed from trees, plants or landscaped areas without written approval.
- Any damage, staining, excessive cleaning or reinstatement cost caused by the Client, guests or suppliers is chargeable to the Client.

External Suppliers

All external suppliers are appointed by the Client at the Client's own risk and expense. The Client remains responsible for ensuring that every supplier, employee and subcontractor complies with White Diamond's rules, access times and reasonable management instructions.

- A complete supplier list with contact details must be supplied at least 30 days before the wedding.
- White Diamond may refuse access to an undeclared or unsuitable supplier where reasonably necessary for safety, licensing, venue protection or operational reasons.
- Supplier damage, loss, additional cleaning, overtime and other costs are deemed the Client's responsibility.
- Suppliers may enter only during the confirmed access window and must vacate by the required breakdown deadline.
- No supplier may move, disconnect, remove or use White Diamond property or equipment unless expressly authorised.

External Caterer & Kitchen Rules

Where the Client elects to use White Diamond's kitchen, the External Caterer Kitchen Access & Facility Fee must be paid in full and the caterer must be approved in advance.

- The caterer's business name, responsible person's details and staff list must be supplied before the event.
- A pre-event and post-event kitchen inspection and equipment count may be conducted.
- Only equipment specifically made available by White Diamond may be used.
- Catering equipment, chafing dishes, glassware, soup bowls or other items not included in the kitchen fee may be hired separately, subject to availability and written confirmation.
- No White Diamond kitchen equipment may be removed from the kitchen or venue without written authorisation.
- No equipment may be disconnected, dismantled or rearranged without permission.
- External gas appliances, deep fryers, open flames or high-load electrical equipment require prior written approval.
- The caterer must supply its own ingredients, consumables and any specialist equipment unless otherwise confirmed.
- Cooking oil, grease, food solids or chemicals may not be poured into drains.
- All food, leftovers, packaging and supplier property must be removed after the event.
- Work surfaces, cooking equipment used and the kitchen must be returned in the agreed clean and orderly condition.
- Damage or loss is charged at reasonable repair or replacement cost. If the cost exceeds any security deposit held, the Client remains liable for the balance.

Final Guest Count

- Estimated guest count is recorded at booking.
 - Final confirmed guest count is due 30 days before the wedding.
 - The final confirmed guest count becomes the minimum chargeable guest count, subject to the signed agreement and applicable law.
 - No refund or credit is given merely because a confirmed guest later fails to attend.
 - Additional guests after final confirmation are subject to venue capacity, written approval, payment and availability of furniture/equipment.
 - Final floor plan and table requirements should be submitted 14–21 days before the wedding.

Cleaning & Handover

Self-catering venue hire does not include post-event cleaning unless specifically quoted. The Client and suppliers must return all used areas in the agreed handover condition.

- Remove all food, leftovers, supplier equipment and personal items.
- Remove décor, packaging, boxes and waste to the designated collection area.
- Clean spills and obvious stains promptly.
- Leave kitchen work surfaces and equipment used clean and orderly.
- Remove grease/oil correctly and do not discharge it into drains.
- Empty any fridges/storage areas used, unless otherwise agreed.
- Return movable venue items as instructed.
- Complete breakdown by the stated deadline.

Failure to meet the required handover standard may result in a reasonable additional cleaning charge and/or deduction from the security deposit in accordance with the signed agreement.

Guest Conduct, Children & Wildlife

- The Client is responsible for communicating venue rules to guests and suppliers.
- Children must be appropriately supervised by a responsible adult at all times.
- Guests may not feed, chase, catch, harass or interfere with wildlife.
- Guests must remain within permitted event, accommodation and parking areas and may not enter private, staff, farm or restricted areas.
- Plants, trees, landscaping, wildlife habitats and venue property may not be damaged or removed.
- White Diamond may reasonably require a person to leave the premises for violent, threatening, abusive, destructive, dangerously intoxicated or persistently non-compliant conduct.
- The Client remains responsible for damage or additional costs caused by guests or suppliers, subject to applicable law.
